SUBJECT: GODR EXTRADITES TWO FUGITIVES

REF: 01 STATE 66137

11. (U) On November 20, 2004, two fugitives were extradited from the Dominican Republic in the company of U.S. Marshals. Jose M. Guzman, reftel A, is wanted to stand trial in the Eastern District of New York on federal narcotics charges. Jose Bonilla is wanted to stand trial in the Supreme Court of the State of New York in Kings County where the most serious of numerous charges he faces are two counts of murder in the second degree.

12. (U) These two extradition cases represent the twelfth and thirteenth fugitives returned to the United States during the second administration of President Leonel Fernandez. They are the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth fugitives extradited from the Dominican Republic to the United States in 2004.
